Hurry! If You Would Share in the Season's Greatest Values!

WINTER SUITS ARE NOW MARKED AT GIVE-AWAY PRICES

Inventory time grows nearer every day. We haven't much time left to effect a clearance of our suits, so prices have been given a final and deeper-than-ever price cut in order to hasten their departure.

There's no trade stimulant like that of low prices, and business should be kept humming if real bargains mean anything to Marshall women.

We do not want you to purchase blindly, or to take our unsupported word for the values. Make comparison! That's the final acid-test, and it will prove to your undoubted satisfaction the fact that our present prices are lower than suits of equal quality have ever sold for in Marshall.

THE CLEARANCE OF WINTER COATS MUST BE THOROUGH

We haven't hesitated to cut prices. We have foregone all idea of profit, and have borne in mind only the ultimate good that will come from a radical clearance of our winter coats.

But prices have now reached bed-rock—if they were any lower than they are at present, they would not cover even the bare cost of materials.

Don't forget the important fact that these coats are all this season's noblest models, in a diversity of styles that embrace all the last-minute concept of fashion. The assortment of materials is broad and every shade, color and pattern you desire is represented.

And prices are but a tithe of the actual value of these handsome coats. The savings are in deed immense.

SKIRTS, WAISTS AND OTHER APPAREL AT FRACTIONAL PRICES

There is certain to be much winter apparel here that you'll need for the bitter cold weather that may well be expected for February. And even if all your winter needs are supplied, it would pay you handsomely to purchase now the apparel with which to start next winter. It's safe to assume that the apparel we're now offering for such tiny sums will cost you fully twice as much next season.

Dresses, skirts, waists, petticoats, etc. are all included in these sweeping reductions, and unequalled values are offered in every line. Assortments are fairly comprehensive and a broad choice is offered.
